Your future goals

Making a good choice when researching a degree

When picking a degree course and making a good choice, the top three things you may consider are:

- 1 What you enjoy
- 2 Course structure and content
- 3 Career prospects

Start planning your degree research by answering the questions below:

1 What do you currently enjoy the most?

Subjects: .....

Hobbies and interests: .....

2 Circle what you prefer when it comes to studying

Exams   Coursework   Researching topics   Laboratory lessons   Debates and discussions

Delivering presentations   Group projects   Writing essays   Role play   Practical work experience

Educational trips   Being outdoors   Working with numbers   Reading

3 Careers that interest me...
